

Jewelry
 THE FINISHING TOUCH

Most people already have a pretty good idea of what they like when they go looking for a ring, but keep your mind open and you might be surprised what you end up deciding on. There are so many options out there that it's important to start looking early and give yourself time to shop. Revisit the stores with rings that catch your eye, and ask all your questions before you buy.

Here are some to get you started:

His

Hers

What are your ring sizes? _____

What is your budget for rings? _____

Should you consider getting a cheaper ring in favor of upgrading later on? _____

What style, metal, or stones do you want on your ring?
 _____
 _____
 _____

Do you have any metal allergies? _____

Do you work with your hands?
 Could stones come loose during your work day? _____

Do you need to be able to take the ring off? (i.e. surgeons must remove jewelry before surgery.) _____

Do you want an inscription engraved on the ring? _____

Inscription: _____
 _____

How long does engraving take? _____

Can you bring the rings back to be engraved later? _____

What warranty comes with the rings? _____

How long does shipping take? _____

